

Congress of Salvation

CONDUCTED BY

The General

Saturday, Nov. 6, to Thursday, Nov. 11
at WINNIPEG

Saturday, 3 p.m. - - - The Citadel YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY	Sunday, 6.30 p.m. - - Board of Trade Bldg. Convention Hall, 6.30 p.m. SALVATION
Saturday, 7 p.m. - Grace Methodist Church SOLDIERS AND EX-SOLDIERS	Monday, 7.30 p.m. - Board of Trade Bldg. Convention Hall
Sunday, 10 a.m. - - Dominion Theatre SOLDIERS AND OFFICERS ONLY	MISSIONARY DEMONSTRATION
Sunday, 3 p.m. - Board of Trade Building Convention Hall	Tues. and Wed. - - Officers' Councils
LECTURE—"THE SALVATION ARMY"	Thursday - - Staff Officers' Council

Everyone is earnestly entreated to pray for this Great Western Congress and for The General

Campaign of Holiness and Salvation

WINNIPEG CITY AND DIVISION

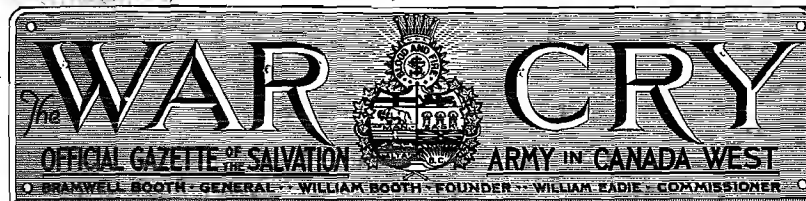

Conducted by THE COMMISSIONER

Supported by Mrs. EADIE, THE CHIEF SECRETARY and Mrs. Morris
Territorial and Training College Staff, Cadets and Others

SATURDAY, OCT. 2 - - - THE CITADEL 8 p.m. HALLELUJAH CHORUS OF MUSIC, SONG, PRAISE	FRI., OCT. 8 - - - Lecture Hall, BOARD OF TRADE BLDG. 8 p.m. JESUS CHRIST—PURIFIER, KEEPER
Sunday, Oct. 3 - - - Dominion Theatre 11 a.m. HOLINESS. THE DOCTRINE.	SATURDAY, OCT. 9 - - - THE CITADEL 8 p.m. GLADNESS, MIRTH, REJOICING, in Praise, Song, Music, Testimony
Sunday, Oct. 3 - - - Dominion Theatre 3 p.m. LECTURE "SOUTH AFRICA: Her Peoples and Prospects"	Sunday, Oct. 10 - - - Dominion Theatre 11 a.m. HOLINESS—THE POSSESSION
Sunday, Oct. 3 - - - Dominion Theatre 7 p.m. TO BE FORGIVEN.	Sunday, Oct. 10 - - - Dominion Theatre 3 p.m. LECTURE: SOCIAL WORK—ACHIEVEMENT
MON., OCT. 4 - - - Lecture Hall, BOARD OF TRADE BLDG. 8 p.m. WHAT IS YOUR LIFE?	Sunday, Oct. 10 - - - Dominion Theatre 7 p.m. CONVERSION—GREAT SALVATION
TUES., OCT. 5 - - - Lecture Hall, BOARD OF TRADE BLDG. 8 p.m. UNREST—CAUSE AND CURE	MONDAY, OCT. 11 - - - GRACE METHODIST CHURCH 8 p.m. SOUTH AFRICAN and INDIAN Demonstrations of God-speed to Officers leaving for Missionary Work in those countries.
WED., OCT. 6 - - - Lecture Hall, BOARD OF TRADE BLDG. 8 p.m. JESUS CHRIST—SAVIOUR, FRIEND
THUR., OCT. 7 - - - Lecture Hall, BOARD OF TRADE BLDG. 8 p.m. JESUS CHRIST—HEALER, DELIVERER

PRAY FERVENTLY FOR THIS CAMPAIGN

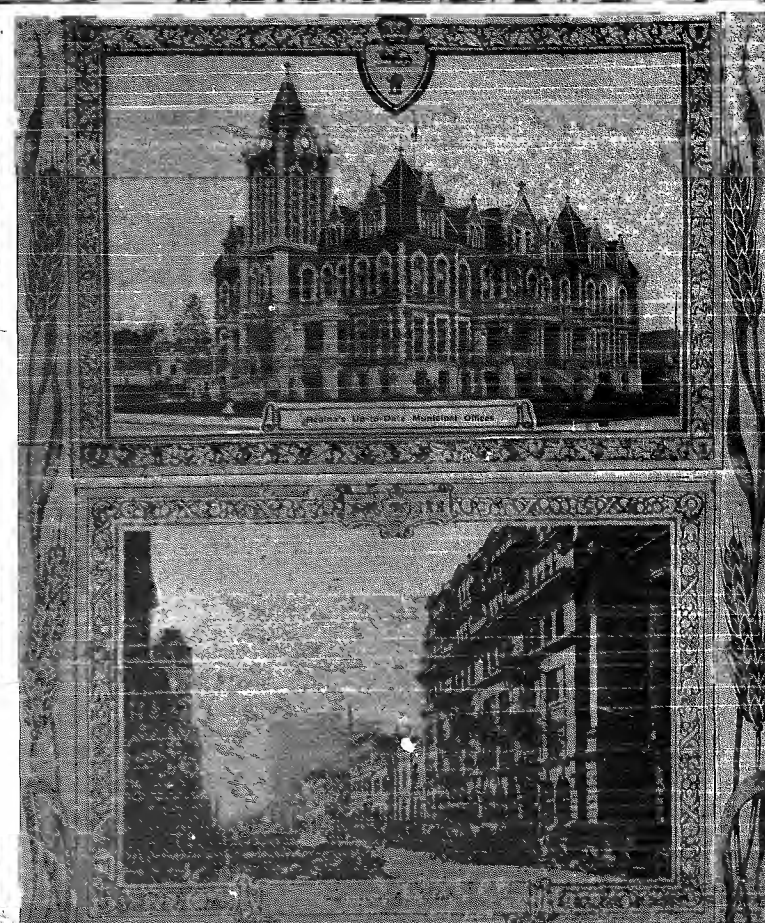

REGINA SPECIAL NUMBER

No. 23

WINNIPEG, OCTOBER 9, 1920

Price 5 cents

Regina—Capital of Saskatchewan—Headquarters of Southern Division

The Province of Saskatchewan

"THE BREAD BASKET OF THE EMPIRE"

Out where the handiwork is a little stronger,
Out where the smile dwells a little longer—
That's where the West begins.

Out where the sun is a little brighter,
Where the snow that falls is a little whiter,
Where the hands of home are a wee bit stiffer—
That's where the West begins.

Out where the sky's a trifle bluer,
Out where the friendship's a little truer,
That's where the West begins.

Out where a fresher breeze is blowing,
Where there's laughter in every stranger's frowning,
Where there's more of smiling and less of frowning,
That's where the West begins.

Out where the West is in the making,
Where fewer hearts with despair are aching,
Where there's more of giving and less of taking,
That's where the West begins.

Where there's more of strength and less of fighting,
Where there's more of giving and less of fighting,
And a man makes friends without half trying,
That's where the West begins.

AN issue of the War Cry devoted to Regina would be incomplete without a more than passing reference to the Province of which it is at once the Capital City and its brightest ornament. Regina stands as the Queen City of the Prairies.

... the Garden of the Desert, these the western fields, boundless and beautiful, for which the speech of England has no name — The Prairies.

The discovery of this country dates back to 1791, and the gem of its history runs through the old North-West Company, which laid the foundation of its trade, the Hudson's Bay Company, which, through mercantile enterprise, virtually governed the Prairies, till the Dominion Government bought out the Company and acquired the Northwest Territories.

Secured Political Autonomy

After a series of governments by Councils and Legislative Assemblies, the Province of Saskatchewan was formed, and given political autonomy under its own Lieutenant-Governor, who acts constitutionally on the advice of a Cabinet consisting of the Premier and eight other ministers. The Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan now consists of sixty members.

The traveller, entering the country by one of the transcontinental lines, might gain the impression that Saskatchewan was a flat, treeless expanse. As a matter of fact, there is a large variety of country: open plain, flat or undulating park land, and beautiful wooded valleys with lovely lakes.

Saskatchewan's production may mount to in fifteen years' time.

Underlying a wide tract of country northwards from the international boundary line, and extending a considerable distance up to the western boundary, is a vast store of lignite coal, a source of wealth which up to the present has been more than scarcely tapped. The great value of these coals to the province is hardly capable of exaggeration.

Saskatchewan has new for many years occupied the premier position among the provinces of Canada as a grain producer, and in more than one year her aggregate production of the four principal grains has exceeded that of any state in the American Union.

H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, SIR RICHARD LAKE, GOVERNOR OF SASKATCHEWAN, AND THEIR RESPECTIVE STAFFS; ALSO LADY LAKE AND CHILDREN

Territorial Newslets

Y. P. RALLY.—The Commissioner will conduct a medal meeting for Young People at the Citadel on Oct. 21st. The Y. P. Corps of the city will unite for the occasion.

The Missionary Demonstration conducted by the Commissioner in Grace Church, Winnipeg on the evening of Monday, Oct. 11th, promises to be a notable event. It is earnestly cordially invited.

Dr. Kelvin, of New York, passed through Winnipeg this week on his return from a trip to the Orient. In conversation with the Chief Secretary and Brigadier Taylor he paid a warm tribute to the work of the Salvation Army in Japan, which he had personally seen while visiting there.

The Chief Secretary and Brigadier Taylor represented the Army at a meeting of the General Municipal Council on Monday morning, Sept. 27th.

Major Sma, the Territorial Young People's Secretary, will leave Winnipeg on Oct. 14th, and will visit Fort Arthur, Fort William, Fort Francis and Kenora. The Major will conduct special meetings at each place.

Brigadier Coombs, accompanied by Captain Fred Mundy, has just completed a campaign in the Okanagan Valley, and reports good meetings, particularly with the Young People.

Our next issue will be largely devoted to matters relative to the Fall and Winter Campaign for souls. Pray for a great outpouring of the Spirit on the people.

We learn, with interest, that a daughter has arrived at the quarters of Captain and Mrs. Waterston, Saskatoon II. Congratulations.

(Continued on Page 10)

International News

Jamaican Open-Air Campaigns

Much of The Army's work in Jamaica is carried on in the open air, and this for two reasons: first, because the weather conditions permit, and secondly, because it is often difficult to provide buildings.

Colonel Harkins reports on several open-air engagements in which he recently took part. One was organized at an arranged place a short march from the Central hall in Kingston, where for nearly two hours a large crowd listened attentively to the proceedings.

The occasion impressed the Colonel with the possibilities of opening another Corps in the neighborhood, and in the meantime of holding a series of open-air meetings at regular intervals at the same spot.

To Lieutenant, which at twenty miles out from Kingston, the Territorial Commander went for a week-end campaign. No building being large enough for the Sunday night crowd, a meeting was held on the market place, where something like a thousand people stood for two hours while the singing and speaking went on. The Colonel concludes his letter with the remark: "I do not know that I ever felt like pouring out my soul on the people so much as I did on this day."

Chalk Farm Band in Scandinavia

A cable received by the British Cry at the time of going to press reports the opening of the Chalk Farm Band's campaign in Scandinavia. Enthusiastic receptions were given the Bandmen at all points. Their first engagements were at Balingen, Copenhagen, in Denmark.

These they journeyed to Malmø and Vejle, and in the magnificent cathedral of the latter city 2,000 people listened with delight to their music. The soldiers have been packed with admiring crowds. None have welcomed the British visitors more heartily than the Swedish Bandmen.

Accompanying the Band is Brigadier Goldsmith, and Bandmaster Panchard is in charge.

Colonel Unsworth Decorated

His Majesty the King recently received Colonel Unsworth at Buckingham Palace, and decorated him with the Order of the Empire for his work among the troops. His Majesty was most cordial with the Colonel.

COMMISSIONER RICHARDS conducted the Welcome meeting to the Cadets at the Toronto Temple on Sunday, Sept. 19

Commissioner and Mrs. Mapp left Toronto for England on Tuesday of last week. A large crowd of Officers and Friends gathered at the station to see them off, including Commissioner and Mrs. Richards, Colonel and Mrs. McMillan, and Captain and Mrs. Laurie. The Commissioner's daughter and son-in-law, As the train pulled out, "God be with you till we meet again" was sung by comrades on the platform.

On Wednesday, Sept. 15, the Chief Secretary conducted the installation service of Major and Mrs. McAmmond at North Bay. The Major, who has previously announced, has been appointed Commissioner of the newly-created North Bay Division.

A recent visitor to Toronto was Colonel Howe, from International Headquarters. This is his first visit to Canada, and he has been very favorably impressed with

Plymouth's "Mayflower" Celebrations

THE CHIEF OF THE STAFF OPENS ARMY'S PART IN PROGRAM WITH SUCCESSFUL SPIRITUAL CAMPAIGN—LADY ASTOR, M.P., AND MAYOR GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGE VALUE OF OUR WORK

THE celebration of the Tercentenary of the sailing of the Pilgrims for America has captivated the attention of every citizen of Plymouth, England. Great men from many centres flocked there for the occasion, and oratory, music, song, pageantry, with flutterings of many-hued bunting, were the order of the day.

The opening of Salvation Army participation in the program of events took place on Sunday morning, being staged on the Fish Quay, where, within sight of the Mayflower Stone, marking the spot from which the Pilgrim Fathers set sail, an open air meeting was conducted, a huge crowd gathered. The Chief of the Staff, who presided over the day's campaign, was present.

This locality is also historic in that the Salvation Army struck upon Plymouth began there over forty years ago, and has been necessarily waged with God-sending results until on this day, the whole town was thoroughly aroused. Wherever our Bandmen and there were four Senior and one Junior Bands in addition to a Concert Band—great throngs of people pressed to hear and follow.

Lessons from the Past. In the Guildhall, following the morning Open-Air, a splendid audience assembled. The Chief drew lessons from the sacrifice of the Mayflower company, pointing out that opportunities for obeying God exist today even as in the seventeenth century, and that God delights to hear faithfulness as much now as ever He did by supporting enabling grace.

Plymouth's woman M.P., Viscountess Astor, presided over the afternoon's gathering, supported by the Mayor (Councillor Lovell R. Dunston), the Mayoress and a numerous platoon of leading townspeople, the Guildhall being crowded to excess. Referring to the pioneer work which the Salvation Army had done in the city, she said: "It is a glorious thing, this remembrance of the light which the Mayflower brought to the world, and the festive atmosphere pervading the town also militated against such a thing. Eventually the total of fourteen couples with solemn warning regarding the consequences attending evil desires."

Then ensued a bitter battle with the powers of darkness. A spirit of evil, she reminded the light was dim, and the festive atmosphere pervading the town also militated against such a thing. Eventually the total of fourteen couples with solemn warning regarding the consequences attending evil desires."

CANADA EAST

Toronto Division on Thursday, Sept. 23, the meeting being held in Donovan Hall. He is now getting down to business on his new work. On Sunday, Oct. 3, he will conduct the meeting at the Toronto Temple.

LL-Colonel Otway, the new Men's Social Secretary, forwarded from the BUILDING OF THE T. EATON CO., REGINA

Fruit of Korean Junior Work

The wedding conducted at Seoul, Korea, of Lieutenant Kwon Yung Ho and Lieutenant Yi Eun Sun is of more than ordinary interest. Both comrades are products of The Salvation Army Junior Work. The bridegroom was converted in a children's meeting, and his mother, who is a widow, has been a soldier ever since. The Army's first day in the city, and was at one time a Bible woman. The bride came into the Kingdom through the Army's Girls' School, where she was converted, and was the first native woman-School in Korea to hold the rank of Lieutenant in her own right. These comrades are now working among the beggar boys in Seoul.

Young People's Campaign (English Division)—Gratifying Advances

Some very interesting figures are to hand relative to the recently-closed Young People's campaign. While these returns concern the English Division only, we doubt not that the other portions of the United Kingdom have done well.

The number of Young People who were registered as seekers at the mercy-seat during the campaign is 19,985, and of these 6,985 have been qualified as Junior Soldiers, 1,409 as Junior Nurses, and 1,409 as Junior Guards.

The new Life-Saving Scouts and Guards enrolled are respectively 1,812 and 1,901; other enrolments are Young People's Bandmen 1,627, Young People's Singers 1,527, Band-of-Love Members, 5,673, Young People's Legion Members, 1,174. The number of new children secured and put on the strength Roll is 6,770, 1,659 of these being in the Senior Roll are also recorded.

Five Corps Cadets Brigades have been formed. Five Corps Cadets Brigades have also been formed.

God help us that it is a foolish little thing, but humankind, at the best, and it is half ridiculous and half pitiful to see what importance we ascribe to it, and to its little comments on distinctions—Jeffrey.

legs of the Toronto Jail Farm, and on the 24th he will visit the Boroath Refractory.

Sault Ste. Marie celebrated its 125th anniversary on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Sept. 11, 12 and 13, and was privileged to have the Chief Secretary and LL-Colonel Otway to conduct these services. From the very first song in the Saturday night Open-Air until the last strain of music on Monday night, the enthusiasm was so great, the singing was so powerful, felt was triumphant, power was manifest and results were evident.

St. John's Salvation Army College opened with a splendid attendance. Collet W. Jennings is Principal, and Cadet Brown first-class. Cadet Jennings is a son of our esteemed Minister of Public Works. His many friends will be glad to know that he passed in his examination and was successful in obtaining his A.A. degree. We offer our congratulations.

THE WAR CRY

Early Day Fighting in Regina

Interesting Account of The Salvation Army's "Opening Fire" Operation in the "Queen City of the West"

Editor's Desk

WE are pleased to present to our readers "The Regina Special Number" and trust it will be an incentive to Officers Commanding Corps in the larger centres to co-operate with us in the publication of other such issues. Branches led the way—Regina follows. How about Winnipeg, Calgary, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Vancouver and Victoria?

We are indebted to Ensign Otway, the Commanding Officer of Regina I, also to Mr. George Beach, City Clerk, who have supplied us with much of the matter and photographs.

"Soldiers' Seek to Save" Campaign. On Wednesday evening, Sept. 29th, the Commissioners met the local Officers in council at the Citadel, and laid before them his plans for the Fall and Winter Campaigns, also the plan which is to be "Soldiers' Seek to Save" Campaign.

In addition to a full report of the Commissioners' strenuous efforts in the city our next issue will contain many valuable suggestions for the forthcoming Campaign. These suggestions will be well worth the thoughtful consideration of Officers, local Officers, Soldiers, and Christians. Look out for our next issue.

Although thought out and delivered under inspiration to the English, audience by the late Mrs. General Booth over forty years ago, the address to be found on page 2, which has to do with what our revered army Mother felt was the world's great need at that period, has in its great need TODAY, there was never a time in the world's history when it was in greater need of a Saviour to save it from itself.

This address is alive, having been born under the inspiration of the Spirit of God, and this alone should commend the meditative study of it to our readers.

Neither our readers or the general public need have any doubt as to the stand The Salvation Army takes on the question of Prohibition. The General has once more proclaimed to the world that the organization has always been, still is, and ever will be, absolutely opposed to the drink traffic. In a recent interview, particular of which will appear in our next issue, The General declared that the reason why The Army takes such a decided stand will be also set forth in a terse article, the subject of which is "Why Every Man Needs to be Drunk!" Every true man agrees that it is a curse—a blot on Christendom.

We learn with interest that immigration to our shores is on the increase. It is a source of satisfaction to know that the calibre of the immigrant is up to standard and that the right calibre are a gift—invested for any country and particularly for a nation just "feeling its feet" as our fair Canada.

The Salvation Army Emigration, Immigration and Colonization Department which, during the long years of war, successfully strove to keep its machinery intact, is now reaping the benefit of this win for thought, and a leading part is being taken by it in dealing with the increasing movement of peoples from Europe to this country.

THE Regina "Leader" of April 23, 1895, announced the coming of The Salvation Army to the city under this striking headline:

DEVIL-WHACKING AT REGINA
Salvationists at Work
HALLELUJAH ! ! ! GOD SAVE THE PEOPLE

THIS was the opening of The Army's work in Regina by its first Officers, Captain Isaacson and Lieutenant Mitchell, announced in the press. The Corps has now been established over a quarter of a century, and The Army has a front-rank place among the various agencies engaged in the work of God in the city.

Major Bennett, then Provincial Officer, with Headquarters at Winnipeg, was in charge of the opening service on the Sunday. Previous to the event the two "Salvation Ladies" (as they were then known) paraded the streets, Captain Isaacson assisted with special meetings from Moose Jaw and Regina. Shortly after the new Officers took command a revival broke out. Among the converts was Brother Wm. Keay, who is the oldest Regina soldier still living in the city.

During the years that followed, the fight became harder and the ranks thinned. Many wondered how the faithful Officers kept pressing on.

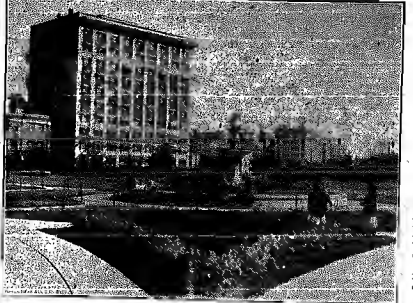

Among those early Officers were Lieutenant Bryant, Captain Habbick, Captain Polly Iredale, Captain Rose Jarvis, Lieutenant Lottie Smith, Captain Brauerman (now Mrs. Keay). The work continued hard, when an incident occurred which turned public sympathy toward The Army.

One night in the depth of winter, when the temperature was 40 below zero and a fierce blizzard was raging, a house of ill-fame caught on fire and two of the girl frequenters were burned to death. The "mistress" of the house, also a young woman, escaped, and though frightfully burned managed to reach the nearest house, where she found temporary shelter.

When Captain Iredale heard of the terrible catastrophe she rose early in the morning, drove out and had the young woman brought to her quarters, where every effort was made to save her life. After a week of terrible suffering, however, she died, but before she had passed and acknowledged her sins and testified that she knew Christ had forgiven her. The Army took charge of the funeral service, which made a great impression on the townsfolk.

The Regina Corps in the early days furnished a number of Officers, Cadet Journeaux being the first to leave. In 1902 Headquarters seriously considered closing the Corps, and final closing reports were actually prepared. There is now no danger of such action. The Army is in Regina, by the good blessing of God, to stay, and to increase and abound in all good works.

REGINA I. C. G. BRIGADE
The Regina I. Corps claims to have one of the most go-ahead Cadet Brigades in the Territory. The past year has seen a number added to the Roll, and two, Laura Tidale and Lilian Larsen, have entered the Training School. The Brigade collected over $400 for the Bazaar. Cadet Tidale and Cadet Alex. Leslie together have raised more than half the money. The Brigade sells War Cry, conducts its own open-air meetings, indoor meetings, and is a source of pride to the Corps. It is fully assisted by Cadet Sergeant Henry Symmonds.

THE MCCALLUM-HILL BLOCK, REGINA

one playing a concertina and the other lines during Exhibition week (1895). The barracks was the Twenty-fifth year! What a splendid record of faithfulness and devotion! The first Harvest Festival netted the sum of $102. What work and effort that sum represented! Lieutenant Mitchell, who was highly esteemed, farewelled on Oct. 4 and was followed by Lieutenant Gardner. On Sunday, Jan. 26, Captain Isaacson farewelled and a splendid banquet was held. The comrades and townsfolk expressed deep regret at the farewelling of the Captain. If ever a good foundation of a new Corps was well and truly laid, it certainly was in Regina by these devoted Officers. Captain Minnie Green, Lieutenant O. Hall and Cadet B. Clark took Light Brigade Band, made up of soldiers from Moose Jaw and Regina, and took them to Prince Albert.

On June 14, 1895, Captain Isaacson presented the Corps with its first recruits were enrolled. It was a very impressive ceremony. Captain Bailey made his first official visit this week and organized the "Grace Before Meat" box work. Many of the old timers recall how this enthusiastic Officer organized the Light Brigade Band, made up of soldiers from Moose Jaw and Regina, and took them to Prince Albert.

LOOKING NORTH FROM VICTORIA PARK, REGINA

Thumb-Nail Sketches of Regina Salvationists

The Regina Citadel Corps Has Some of the Oldest Canadian Salvationists on Its Roll—The Bandmaster Has Held His Commission for Over a Quarter of a Century—Corps Cadet Guardian—One of the Original 'Little Soldier' Captains

ENVOY AND MRS. PEACOCK—Sister Mrs. Peacock—Mrs. Peacock is a Salvationist who can look back on over half a century of Christian experience, for as a child she sought and found the Saviour. Her association with The Army from the early eighties. He was converted in Barrie, Ont., shortly after this famous old Corps was opened, because a Salvationist, and eventually was one of the first Canadian soldiers to receive a Local Officer's commission. In 1909 he was made a positive Candidate, and the youngest in a Corps Cadet. She assists in the disposal of 400 War Cry's each week.

SISTER MRS. TISDALE—Mrs. Tisdale is a Salvationist who can look back on over half a century of Christian experience, for as a child she sought and found the Saviour. Her association with The Army from the early eighties. He was converted in Barrie, Ont., shortly after this famous old Corps was opened, because a Salvationist, and eventually was one of the first Canadian soldiers to receive a Local Officer's commission. In 1909 he was made a positive Candidate, and the youngest in a Corps Cadet. She assists in the disposal of 400 War Cry's each week.

BROTHER JAMES SMITH—Brother James Smith is a Salvationist who can look back on over half a century of Christian experience, for as a child she sought and found the Saviour. Her association with The Army from the early eighties. He was converted in Barrie, Ont., shortly after this famous old Corps was opened, because a Salvationist, and eventually was one of the first Canadian soldiers to receive a Local Officer's commission. In 1909 he was made a positive Candidate, and the youngest in a Corps Cadet. She assists in the disposal of 400 War Cry's each week.

SISTER MRS. KEAY—Mrs. Keay is associated with the early history of Regina Corps, for as Ensign Brauerman she was one of the first District Officers for what was then the Regina district. Her district included a number of Corps within a radius of a couple of hundred miles of Regina, in addition to the command of the Home Corps. While home duties now hinder her, she is as active as in earlier days, and is still heart and soul in the work and always ready to take her share in the fight. Brother Keay has the credit of being the oldest original Regina Salvationist still on the roll, having been converted in the early days of the Corps.

Sister Mrs. Peacock

Sister Mrs. Tisdale

Brother James Smith

Sister Mrs. Keay

THE REGINA CITADEL, BROAD STREET

Adjutant Otway

Mrs. Adjutant Otway

THE COMMANDING OFFICERS

THE Adjutant is the son of Lt.-Colonel Otway of Canada East, Territorial Headquarters Staff. A Salvationist from birth and from conviction, he has been connected with The Salvation Army all his life. He was converted as a lad of twelve in the famous Clayton Congress Hall, and in his service has been a number of local officers, and now looks after the spiritual welfare of the Band.

BAND-SERGEANT MERTENS was converted at Holloway, London, Eng., under the ministrations of Captain (now Brigadier) Emily Turner. An outstanding feature of his beginning in The Army was his public enrolment by Captain Turner in an open-air Enrolment Service in Hyde Park. In his service he has been a number of local officers, and now looks after the spiritual welfare of the Band.

his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was appointed Officer in charge of Regina I. Corps in the fall of 1919. Mrs. Otway is a most enthusiastic and tireless helpmate, and readily assumes her responsibilities of the Corps work. She also has been a Salvationist from childhood, and when 17 years old was a member of one of the Corps Headquarters. Entering the Training College in January, 1909, he received his commission and has filled a number of Headquarters positions. He was

Men's Social and Industrial Department

REGINA, SASK.

Holds Important Place in the Life of the Capital

ADJUTANT ROBERT FULLERTON, manager of the Men's Social Department, Regina, is a man well fitted to fill the responsible position he holds, and with the assistance of Mrs. Fullerton he is doing a splendid work in the city.

The Adjutant is in close touch with the police and prison authorities, and can tell of many interesting cases that have been handled over to him by the police court, or from the court of appeal.

He regularly attends the court and is a well known figure there. Both the police magistrate and the chief of police have expressed their appreciation of the Army's service, and the magistrate has frequently and publicly commended Adjutant Fullerton for his timely aid in dealing with difficult cases.

Quite a number of the cases that have been handed over are in regular correspondence with the Adjutant, and are doing well. The Adjutant recently received a letter from a girl who came to Regina, fell on evil ways and found herself in the hands of the police. The Adjutant was asked to deal with her, and she was eventually sent back to her mother, who lived in a little town on the prairie. The girl now writes to say she is well and living a straight, honorable life at home.

Cases sometimes occur where, for special reasons, the magistrate awards a suspended sentence, on the accused person undertaking to regard himself or herself as being under the Adjutant's care. Such persons have to report weekly or monthly as ordered, and the Adjutant will during the period be responsible for their good behavior. In this way many a first offender has been saved from the stain of gaol, and possibly from becoming a confirmed criminal.

Not only do the city authorities find the Adjutant a valuable helper, but the responsible department of the provincial government often hands over women and girls who have got into difficulty, and with whom "The Salvation Army" is peculiarly fitted to deal. The Adjutant also works in conjunction with the Juvenile Court. The case is under the direction of the provincial government and presided over by a woman judge, where boys and girls under 16 years of age found transgressing the law are dealt with away from the court, and the Adjutant is occupied in the ordinary police court.

The sad news has reached us that Harold Moore, of Sukkertown, has recently died. Harold was a young man of 20 years, who for many years was Senior Sergeant-Major of the Winnipeg Citadel Corps. A number of the older Salvationists attended the funeral, also Captain and Mrs. Bain. May God sustain the bereaved ones. — E. M. T.

Adjutant Ouko, assisted by Lieutenant Euphemia, has been active as at present engaged in organizing financial campaigns in the smaller incorporated towns of the Province of Manitoba. Local committees are most hearty co-operation. At several places the churches have arranged a

SOME sidelights on this intensely human phase of The Army's operations in the city. The Department is held in high regard by the Civic and Police authorities and the citizens generally.

Interests of the young, and when necessary bringing offenders to court. His duty is to check such evils as cigarette smoking, frequenting pool-rooms, and keeping young people away from the many dangers that are so apt to beset their path.

The object is to arrest wrong-doing in its earliest stages, and many a "budding" young law-breaker has been saved by careful handling from the court. When necessary, boys are sent to a detention home, and girls to a similar, but separate institution. Adjutant Fullerton has upon occasion been called upon to look after their wives and families while they are in prison. One man, who had left his wife and come to work in another town, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. His wife was able to arrange for her older children to stay with friends, while the Adjutant got her baby into a foster home, and secured employment for her while her husband completed his sentence.

When it has been found necessary, the Adjutant has provided the families of prisoners with parcels of clothing, with money, and aid in other ways to the great consolation of the unhappy men who have been unable to look after them themselves.

Many have been converted in jail, or in some instances after leaving jail, through the ministrations of the Adjutant and his helpers, and have become regular attendants at the Corps, in some cases Salvationists.

The work the Adjutant is doing is a Christlike one and, as he himself says, it "brings its own blessing." Adjutant Fullerton holds from Calgary, where he was converted under the present Brigadier Coombs. Out from there eleven years ago and was for a number of years stationed in the Maritime Provinces, returning to his own town for a short time on Social work. Came to Regina two years ago in charge of the Social Work of the city and district.

Mrs. Fullerton came of Montreal seventeen years ago and had a number of Field and Women's Social Staff appointments in St. John's and afterwards in Toronto and the Maritime Provinces. She was married to the Adjutant in 1918.

lately ill in the hospital, is progressing favorably and was able to be removed to the quarters at Glen View. God bless Adair and Mrs. Jackson at their lonely mission station.

up with clothes if required and, when they are selling to a point beyond advances money for the purpose. In addition to this they receive all the good counsel the Adjutant is capable of—which is saying a good deal.

As a former mentioned, the Adjutant is permitted to interview men in jail, and will listen to the stories he hears. At times he has been successful in getting men out of a parole failure to be in the best interests of a prisoner and desirable from a public point of view. In this case a man will be released at the end of, say, half his sentence, and for the balance of 12 he will have to keep in touch with the government authorities.

Prisoners often request the Adjutant to undertake to look after their wives and families while they are in prison. One man, who had left his wife and come to work in another town, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. His wife was able to arrange for her older children to stay with friends, while the Adjutant got her baby into a foster home, and secured employment for her while her husband completed his sentence.

When it has been found necessary, the Adjutant has provided the families of prisoners with parcels of clothing, with money, and aid in other ways to the great consolation of the unhappy men who have been unable to look after them themselves.

Many have been converted in jail, or in some instances after leaving jail, through the ministrations of the Adjutant and his helpers, and have become regular attendants at the Corps, in some cases Salvationists.

The work the Adjutant is doing is a Christlike one and, as he himself says, it "brings its own blessing." Adjutant Fullerton holds from Calgary, where he was converted under the present Brigadier Coombs. Out from there eleven years ago and was for a number of years stationed in the Maritime Provinces, returning to his own town for a short time on Social work. Came to Regina two years ago in charge of the Social Work of the city and district.

Mrs. Fullerton came of Montreal seventeen years ago and had a number of Field and Women's Social Staff appointments in St. John's and afterwards in Toronto and the Maritime Provinces. She was married to the Adjutant in 1918.

lately ill in the hospital, is progressing favorably and was able to be removed to the quarters at Glen View. God bless Adair and Mrs. Jackson at their lonely mission station.

The Trade Secretary informs us that his list of widows who feel that any day. They are busy stock-taking in the Department at present. The Y.P. prices have arrived and the catalog of titles will be sent to the Officer in the near future.

Brother Robinson, of Dauphin, met his dear wife, who was dying, in moving a house; pray that God might comfort the sorrowing relatives.

HOME CORNER

To destroy the odor of fish on your cooking utensils, add a spoonful of mustard to your dishwater.

For fine linen handkerchiefs which have become yellow, first soak in cold water to which a little ammonia has been added. Then cut a lemon in slices, with rind, and put in a pan. When the water boils put the handkerchiefs in and boil twenty minutes. Rinse well.

An apple placed in the cake jar will keep the cake moist for several days.

Sprinkle salt on a beet stain on table linen while the stain is fresh. After standing for a while it can be washed in warm water and soap.

Your food chopper can be sharpened by running a piece of sandpaper through the same as food; and your scissors by cutting a piece of newspaper into strips.

VANCOUVER IL—Sunday, Sept. 5, we had good meetings all day. A feature of the day was a song and a tender enrolment. In the night meeting two precious souls came forward. Harry Grant and gave their hearts to God. On the Monday night the united meeting was held at our Corps, and a good crowd was present. Our five speakers of the previous night were present and testified—H. S.

TRAIL, B.C.—On Friday, Sept. 3, we said farewell to a dear Army friend, Mrs. Routledge. Although not a Salvationist, she was always ready and willing to do her part in any efforts. Mrs. Routledge was our champion Self-Denial collector. She came to Trail from Rossland about four years ago, that being before The Army opened its file in Trail. The Officers with Mrs. Routledge were oftentimes the only ones present at the meeting. When the train pulled out those gathered to see Mrs. Routledge all sang "God be with you till we meet again." Our friend will be greatly missed in Trail, but our loss will be Namakwa's gain. Her two daughters will be missed by the Young People, as they were always in attendance and always took part in all the Y.P. work. May God bless them—Mrs. Appleton.

The first creation of God in the works of the days was the light of the sun; the last was the light of the sun. The first was the light of the sun; the last was the light of the sun. The first was the light of the sun; the last was the light of the sun.

Are You Going to England?
Do you want to bring your friends to Canada?
Immigration Department can arrange all your transportation and you will have the advantage of experienced Canadian agents who will give you up-to-date travelling information. Write for particulars to the

COMMUNIST WAREHOUSE
217 1/2 Street W., Winnipeg, Manitoba. Office for Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and East of the Rocky Mountains.
MANITOBA WELFARE GUARDIAN
221 Gore Ave., Vancouver for British Columbia.

Salvation Songs

Tune—My God, I Am Thine, 184. The Heart of the Trumpet, 185. Song-Book, 186.
My God, I am Thine; what a comfort divine!
What a blessing to know that my Jesus is mine!

In the Heavenly Lamb thrice happy I am,
And my heart it doth dance at the sound of His name.

True pleasures abound in the rapturous sound,
And whoever has found it has paradise found.
My Jesus to know, and feel His blood flow,
"Thine everlasting, 'tis Heaven below."

Tune—Hark Away to Jesus, 261. Song-Book, 262.
The angel of the Lord shall stand,
While thousands thunders roar,
And swear by Heaven's eternal throne,
That time shall be no more;
The earth and everything therein
Shall melt with fervent heat,
And sinners found still in their sin
Will have their God to meet.

Hark away to Jesus—Oh, hear the warbler sing,
Hark away to Jesus, for death is drawing nigh.
In vain they'll cry for rocks to hide
Them from Jehovah's face;
But, cursed by sin, they'll be denied—
They'll have no hiding-place.
Before God's bar we all must go,
And hear the sentence given:
"Perish ye cursed, into Hell!"
Oh, "Come with Me to Heaven!"

WINNIPEG L.—We recently welcomed our new Officers, Captain and Mrs. McBain. In this meeting the Captain dedicated the little son of Brother and Sister Irwin. Young People marched through the central parts of Winnipeg, led by the Citadel Band, which was followed by a lovely meeting inside, led by Major Sims, assisted by Y.P.S.-M. Mrs. Mitchell. Captain

VICTORIA, B.C.—Victoria Corps is very proud of the fact that three more Cadets have entered the Training College from the Roll. They will be greatly missed by the Young People, as they were always in attendance and always took part in all the Y.P. work. May God bless them—Mrs. Appleton.

Singer Leader Ada Irwin, who has left us this year, has been connected with the Corps for a little over two years. She has worked hard and successfully with the Songster Brigade and her earnest, willing efforts have done much to build up the Young People's work.

Cadet Lily Roskelly was born in South Africa, and many "old-timers" will remember her mother, formerly Staff-Captain Grayson, who was the first woman D.O. in Canada. In 1890 she took charge of the B.C. Division (or District), with Headquarters at Victoria, and later was transferred to South Africa, from whence she returned a few years ago with her husband and two daughters, the elder of whom has now gone into training. Cadet Ethel Oregan is the daughter of Sergeant Arthur Oregan, whose name is first on the soldiers' roll, and who dates his conversion back to the opening of Victoria Corps. He and his sister, Mrs. Little, are still active soldiers.

Both Cadets Oregan and Roskelly were Company Guides. On the Monday night before the girls left for Winnipeg the Songster Brigade gave a splendid program, assisted by a few others. Songster Leader Irwin conducted them for the last time. Adjutant With the Corps Officer, and Adjutant Clarke, of Vancouver, were present.

A large crowd of comrades and friends assembled at the docks to bid the Cadets good-bye, and several accomplished them as far as Vancouver. May God abundantly bless and sustain them.—A. E. T.

And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.—John iii. 19-21.

BRIGADIER I. E. TAYLOR
Moore Jav.—Sat, Sun, and Mon, Oct. 16-17-18.

BRIGADIER J. S. McLEAN
Brandon—Sat, Sun, and Mon, Oct. 16-17-18.

BRIGADIER COOMBS
Rossland—Sat, Sun, Oct. 9-10.
Trail—Mon, Oct. 11.
Valton—Tue, Wed, Oct. 12-13.
Granbrook—Thurs, Oct. 14.
Ponies—Sat, Sun, Oct. 15-16.
Vancouver—Wed, Oct. 20.
Vancouver—Thurs, Oct. 21.
Vancouver—Fri, Oct. 22.
Vancouver—Sat, Oct. 23.
Vancouver—Sun, Oct. 24.
Mrs. Coombs will accompany.

MAJOR ERNEST SIMS, Y.P.S.—Monro, Pri. 1617-18 (Y.P. Day): Port William, Penn. Wel. Thru. Oct. 12-13-14.
Pri. 1617-18 (Y.P. Day): Port William, Penn. Wel. Thru. Oct. 12-13-14.

COMING EVENTS

The Chief Secretary

Lt.-Colonel Frank Merrell
Calgary—Friday, Oct. 15: Welcomes Lethbridge—Saturday, Oct. 16: Welcomes Lethbridge, Sunday, Oct. 17: Y.P. Day. Medicine Hat, Monday, Oct. 18: Welcomes Moose Jaw, Tuesday, Oct. 19: Welcomes Regina, Wednesday, Oct. 20: Welcomes Brandon, Thursday, Oct. 21: Welcomes. Divisional Officers will accompany in their respective Divisions.

BRIGADIER I. E. TAYLOR
Moore Jav.—Sat, Sun, and Mon, Oct. 16-17-18.

BRIGADIER J. S. McLEAN
Brandon—Sat, Sun, and Mon, Oct. 16-17-18.

BRIGADIER COOMBS
Rossland—Sat, Sun, Oct. 9-10.
Trail—Mon, Oct. 11.
Valton—Tue, Wed, Oct. 12-13.
Granbrook—Thurs, Oct. 14.
Ponies—Sat, Sun, Oct. 15-16.
Vancouver—Wed, Oct. 20.
Vancouver—Thurs, Oct. 21.
Vancouver—Fri, Oct. 22.
Vancouver—Sat, Oct. 23.
Vancouver—Sun, Oct. 24.
Mrs. Coombs will accompany.

MAJOR ERNEST SIMS, Y.P.S.—Monro, Pri. 1617-18 (Y.P. Day): Port William, Penn. Wel. Thru. Oct. 12-13-14.
Pri. 1617-18 (Y.P. Day): Port William, Penn. Wel. Thru. Oct. 12-13-14.

Officers—Attention!
"The General's" Issue
Week ending October 30th
The special features of this issue will make it a good seller.
Place Order for Increase NOW

WALLIN, JONAS. About thirty-three years of age. Swede. Latest address care of Mrs. M. J. Wallin, 1000, Alaska. Mother very anxious.

1644—FOWLER, ALEXANDER. 28 years of age. Scotch. Height, 5' 10". Weight, 160 lbs. Brown hair and eyes. Fair complexion. "Clean shaven." Has a tattooed soldier's initials "No. 14174" on his left arm. In the vicinity of Winnipeg. GILFILLAN, GUY. 28 years of age. Swede. Dark hair and eyes. Fair complexion. "Clean shaven." Has a tattooed soldier's initials "No. 14174" on his left arm. In the vicinity of Winnipeg. MOSBY, RICHARD. 28 years of age. Swede. Dark hair and eyes. Fair complexion. "Clean shaven." Has a tattooed soldier's initials "No. 14174" on his left arm. In the vicinity of Winnipeg. 1645—FOWLER, ALEXANDER. 28 years of age. Scotch. Height, 5' 10". Weight, 160 lbs. Brown hair and eyes. Fair complexion. "Clean shaven." Has a tattooed soldier's initials "No. 14174" on his left arm. In the vicinity of Winnipeg. GILFILLAN, GUY. 28 years of age. Swede. Dark hair and eyes. Fair complexion. "Clean shaven." Has a tattooed soldier's initials "No. 14174" on his left arm. In the vicinity of Winnipeg. MOSBY, RICHARD. 28 years of age. Swede. Dark hair and eyes. Fair complexion. "Clean shaven." Has a tattooed soldier's initials "No. 14174" on his left arm. In the vicinity of Winnipeg.

Congress of Salvation

CONDUCTED BY

The General

Saturday, Nov. 6, to Thursday, Nov. 11
at WINNIPEG

Saturday, 3 p.m. - - - - The Citadel YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY	Sunday, 6.30 p.m. - Board of Trade Bldg. Convention Hall, 6.30 p.m. SALVATION
Saturday, 7 p.m. - Grace Methodist Church SOLDIERS AND EX-SOLDIERS	Monday, 7.30 p.m. - Board of Trade Bldg. Convention Hall
Sunday, 10 a.m. - - - Dominion Theatre SOLDIERS AND OFFICERS ONLY	MISSIONARY DEMONSTRATION
Sunday, 3 p.m. - Board of Trade Building Convention Hall	Tues. and Wed. - - - Officers' Councils
LECTURE—"THE SALVATION ARMY"	Thursday - - - Staff Officers' Council

Everyone is earnestly entreated to pray for this Great Western Congress and for The General

Campaign of Holiness and Salvation

WINNIPEG CITY AND DIVISION

Conducted by THE COMMISSIONER

Supported by Mrs. EADIE, THE CHIEF SECRETARY and Mrs. Morris
Territorial and Training College Staff, Cadets and Others

Sunday, October 10—Dominion Theatre

11 a.m.—HOLINESS: THE POSSESSION 3 p.m.—SOCIAL WORK: ACHIEVEMENT
7 p.m.—Conversion—Great Salvation

Monday, October 11—Grace Methodist Church

8 p.m.—South African and Indian Demonstration of God-speed to Officers leaving for Missionary Work in these Countries

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 18 - - - - THE CITADEL
8 p.m. CORPS CADETS AND GUARDIANS

Sunday, Oct. 17 - - - - Wonderland Theatre
11 a.m., 3 and 7 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 20 - - - - THE CITADEL
HANDSMEN'S COUNCILS

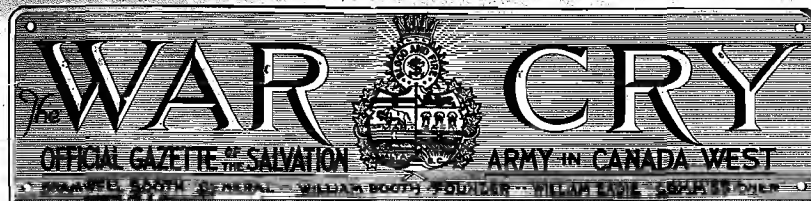

Sunday, Oct. 24 - - - - Scandinavian Corps
11 a.m., 3 and 7 p.m. LOGAN AVE.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 27 - - - - THE CITADEL
YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING

Sunday, Oct. 31 - Classic Theatre, St. James
11 a.m., 3 and 7 p.m.

PRAY FERVENTLY FOR THIS CAMPAIGN

WHY THE ARMY FIGHTS THE DRINK!

No. 24

WINNIPEG, OCTOBER 16, 1920

Price 5 cents

GENERAL BEAMWELL BOOTH

*I am watching for the Victory and for you
Share in it for as often as I pray for you.*
W. Beamwell Booth

CHIEF OF THE STAFF

*Be desperate! Be desperate in your prayer, your public speaking, in all your work
for God. Yours sincerely
Edw. J. Higgins*

MRS. GENERAL BOOTH

You shall win but you must fight.
Florence Booth

"SOLDIERS SEEK TO SAVE CAMPAIGN"

October to March
1920—21

COMMISSIONER EADIE

*Work right. Pray for souls. Be desperate caring. Confident
the gods are good.*
William Eadie

Love. Faith. works shall be.
Annie Eadie

MRS. COMMISSIONER EADIE